

HMRC tax investigations aren't just something you hear about.

Our Tax Investigation Service provides you with support when you need it most.

HMRC have launched hundreds of investigations against innocent individuals in the last few years.

We recommend that all of our clients consider joining our Tax Investigation Service. Every year, HMRC carry out enquiries into the tax affairs of an increasing number of individuals in the UK.

Many people find an HMRC enquiry disruptive, intrusive, stressful and ultimately expensive.

Should you join our Tax Investigation Service, you will benefit from the peace of mind that comes from knowing you are protected. Not only does it pay our professional fees in the event of a check on your tax affairs, it enables us to provide expert advice and guidance to you every step of the way.

Are you at risk of an enquiry?

There does not need to be a reason for HMRC to check your tax affairs. Every taxpayer who submits a tax return is at risk of being targeted.

Even if you have done nothing wrong, many tax enquiries are conducted at random.

Case Study: Declared Information

HMRC considered they had information to suggest a client had not declared all of their income. They launched an enquiry and refused to tell the client what information they held. The enquiry lasted for over three years and cost over £11,000 to deal with.

It turned out HMRC's information was incorrect, but the accountant's fees were still settled under the Tax Investigation Service.
